Marine Corps History - NOVEMBER - DECEMBER

10 November 1921 / First formal commemoration of the Marine Corps birthday. Major General Commandant John A. Lejeune issued Marine Corps Order No. 47 summarizing the history, mission and tradition of the Marine Corps and directed that it be read each 10 November to celebrate the beginning of the Marine Corps on 10 November 1775.

7 December 1941 / On a peaceful Sunday Morning on the island of Oahu in Hawaii, the United States was thrust into the war that they were trying to avoid. At just before 8:00 AM nearly 200 Japanese planes attacked the Airfields at Pearl Harbor followed quickly by another wave of torpedo bombers that attacked the ships that were anchored there. A total of nine ships were sunk, including the USS Arizona, and 21 ships were severely damaged. Over 2,300 Americans were killed in the attack and nearly 1,200 were injured.

15 December 1948 / The Secretary of the Navy signed a "Memorandum of Agreement" with the State Department which laid the basis for the modern Marine Security Guard program at U.S. embassies throughout the world.

Voluntarily aiding and rendering assistance to all Marines and former Marines and to their widows and orphans; and to perpetuate the history of the United States Marine Corps and by fitting acts to observe the anniversaries of historical occasions of particular interest to Marines.

Founded in 1923 by Lieutenant General John A. Lejeune (13th Commandant, 1920-29), the Marine Corps League is the only federally chartered (1937) Marine Corps related veterans organization in the United States.
